

Advanced Report Runner

The Ultimate Data Compiler

What is Advanced Report Runner?

Paypro's Advanced Report Runner is a new tool to extract and compile data from your payroll system in a fast and efficient way. There are no limits to the information you can extract.

With Paypro's Advanced Report Runner you will have the ability to compile data on any fields, multiple databases or check dates. You will also be able to set up pre-process audit reports, database diagnostics and analysis to enhance your payroll processes. All reports can be exported into an Excel format for easy reference.

How to Get Started

Paypro will install an icon on your desktop for easy access to the Advanced Report Runner. As part of the implementation, Paypro will provide you with 10 of the most common advanced reports used by our clients. Additionally, Paypro will provide you with consultation on how to extract data using the Advanced Report Runner as well as provide you with custom scripts to produce the reports you need.

What's The Cost?

For only $49.95 per quarter, you will have full access to your database to produce the custom reports you need!
